HOMECOMING

V

QUEEN, GEORGENE STEWART KING, LAWRENCE EVANS
Joanne Baird Diane Germain Margaret Birk

The 1959-60 Annual Homecoming, October 23, was one not to be forgotten. Heavy rains prevailed all day cancelling the Float Parade. At night, the game and halftime show were presented under a cloud of rain.

SOUTH PACIFIC

The Junior class chose as their theme for the Jr. & Sr. Prom, "South Pacific." The class worked hard during the week preceeding Friday, May 13. Finally the night arrived and the fish nets, palm trees, and South Pacific girls, all added greatly to fill the air with a Southern Pacific atmosphere.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is created with the purpose to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote leadership, to develop character, and make a desire to render service. Members are picked from the upper third of the Junior and Senior classes. Meetings are held semi-montly and the officers for the year were: President, Janet Baranski; Vice-President, Mary Whitney; Secretary, Janine Tulloch; Treasurer, Carolyn Siver. Mr. Whitney is the sponsor.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The governing body of Vassar High School is the Student Council. Elections are held each fall at the beginning of the term. There are two representatives from each class. This year's officers were: Robert DeLorenzo, President; Suzanne Garner, Vice-President; Penny Williams, Secretary; Janine Tulloch, Treasurer. Their advisor is Mr. Kelly. Some of their activities of the school year included: School Magazine Sale, Dane Schedule, Homecoming Activities and the Annual S. C. Picnic.

Future Homemakers of America

The Vassar chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is affiliated with the national organization. The club is a meeting place for future home economists.

The chapter was under the leadership of the following officers: Ruth Honsinger, President; Judy Reif, Vice-President; Karen Rollinger, Secretary; Dianne Karr, Treasurer; Nancy Krumnauer, Historian; Carolyn Laking, Student Council; Pamela Gray, Reporter; Janine Tulloch, Songleader; and Angela Datz, Parliamentarian. Mrs. Myers is the club sponsor.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in the public high schools. Actually, F.F.A. is an integral part of the program of instruction in agriculture by providing experience in leadership, cooperation and in the development of good citizenship.

Officers are: President, Eugene Palmreuter; Vice-President, Michael Zwerk; Secretary, Dale Auernhammer; Treasurer, Bob Schnell; Reporter, Jerry Amend; Sentinel, James Trump and Mr. Walfred Tollefson, Advisor.

THESPIAN TROUPE 1303

Thespian Troupe 1303 was organized this year for the purpose of creating a more active interest in the dramatic arts. Membership is determined by a point system, with the final decision resting upon the Troupe sponsor, Mrs. Donald Asher and the national committee. Officers are: Bill Schlichter, President; Janet Baranski, Vice-President; Mardean Gray, Secretary; Margaret McElroy, Treasurer; and Herbert Kern, Records Clerk.

Forensics

The Vassar High School annual Forensic Contest was held March 11 in the Bank room. Any high school student was eligible to compete in the five areas. They were: Declamation, Original Oratory, Extempore Speaking, Humorous Reading and Interpretative Reading. Competing in the local contest were 36 students.

The ten local winners went to Frankenmuth, April 5th, for the District Competition. Mrs. Donald Asher was the club's sponsor.
